'Getting things done – with others' Design and facilitation of multi-stakeholder partnerships

In recent years, multi-stakeholder partnerships (MSPs) have become popular for tackling the complex challenges of sustainable development. This IGG lunch lecture focuses on why so many MSPs fail to reach their full potential, and what can be done to better design and facilitate them. It introduces the MSP Guide, a new publication of Wageningen UR, CDI, written for those directly involved in MSPs - as a stakeholder, leader, facilitator or funder. With examples of food & nutrition security PPPs. With Herman Brouwer, Simone van Vugt, Karèn Verhoosel (Wageningen UR, CDI)
