

Viable pathways of change – towards a circular nutrient economy

Workshop on Compost for Sustainable Agriculture facts, myths, potentials and business opportunities

September 12-13th 2016, ICIPE Duduville Campus
Off Kasarani Road, Nairobi, Kenya

- » Get to know more about compost quality and quantity, pros and cons of compost in farming systems
- » Get your own compost sample analysed beforehand and discuss results in the workshop
- » Go on a tour to a compost production facility
- » Develop and discuss business opportunities for resource recovery

www.fertilegroundsinitiative.info/

Workshop program “Compost for Sustainable Agriculture – facts, myths, potentials and business opportunities”

Date	Time	Program item	Responsible Party
12 th Sept. Facilitator day 1 Dr. Nadine Herold	8.15 – 9.00	Registration
	9.00 – 9.05	Welcome by the workshop coordinator	Dr. Nadine Herold
	9.05 – 9.15	Official welcome by CIAT	Juliet Braslow
	9.15 – 9.35	Introduction to the Fertile Grounds Initiative	Dr. Christy van Beek
	9.35 – 10.10	Organic resources: uses, challenges and opportunities for sustainable agriculture - key lessons from the FGI case studies in Northwestern Ethiopia.	Dr. Yihenew Selassie
	10.10 – 10.30	Plant made organic fertilizer and its use by farmers in Kenya.	Marion Moon
	10.30 – 11.00	Tea break
	11.00 – 11.25	Compost: the same everywhere? Overview of quality aspects to be considered when using compost in agriculture.	Dr. Paul Römkens
	11.25 – 12.30	Data from compost samples: what do they tell us?	Dr. Paul Römkens, interactive session
	12.30 – 13.30	lunch
	13.45 – 20.00	Excursion to compost plant Green Resource Exploration (Kenya) Ltd	all
	20.00	Dinner at 67 Airport Hotel	all
13 th Sept. Facilitator day 2 Juliet Braslow	9.00 – 9.10	Summary day 1	Dr. Christy van Beek
	9.10 – 10.15	Kenya – organic resource availability, type, quantity and quality as preparation for business model development.	All in 3 groups, facilitator Dr. P. Römkens
	10.15 – 10.30	Example 1 of a business model
	10.30 – 10.45	Example 2 - Developing business opportunities for resource recovery and reuse (RRR) of domestic and agro-industrial waste in urban and peri-urban areas (Kenya).	Jack Odera
	10.45 – 11.15	Tea break
	11.15 – 11.35	How can you develop a business model? - CANVAS	Anniek Elemans
	11.40 – 13.00	Get started! Develop basis of one business model.	All in 5 groups
	13.00 – 14.15	lunch
	14.15 – 14.35	On the home stretch! - Finish your innovative idea and prepare 5 min. presentation.	All in 5 groups
	14.35 – 15.30	Business model competition – nomination of competition winner.	Group presentation (5 min. per group)
	15.30 – 16.30	What's next? Discussion on how to continue with these business models.	All, facilitator Dr. C. van Beek
	16.30 – 16.45	Wrap up and way forward, outlook on series of workshops.	Dr. Christy van Beek
	16.45	Drinks	